Upcoming Events

Important note about the official calendar below. After some discussion at a recent meeting, it is the opinion of the group that liability insurance is more likely to cover events sanctioned by the WVRA. It is our opinion that to be sanctioned the event should at the minimum be listed on this calendar. Addendum, January 2022. I discussed this issue with the insurance expert of the USV and he agrees that this is a gray area. There is some question whether the liability insurance would cover WVRA members only at sanctioned WVRA events or all events. He further agreed that publishing events in the newsletter may help to make them "official."

2022 – Mid-December Edition CXLVII

Jim offered to read the minutes as published in the newsletter. Bill moved that the minutes be accepted as printed. Ken seconded. The motion passed.

Tim gave the treasurer's report. The organization currently has $2,061.75 with no outlays this past month. Chuck moved to accept the report and Jim seconded. The motion passed. Tim is leaving the area and giving up the treasurer's position. He deserves a big thank-you for his work.

Old business: The discussion about some type of merger with the Valley Division was brought up. Jim made a motion to have a committee to study the issue and possibly make a recommendation. Chuck seconded the motion and it passed with one nay vote. Jim, Chuck, Roger and Bill with comprise the committee.

Jim gave a report on the items donated to the unit by Debbie Moore. (See the attached addendum). The Artillery unit has agreed to store unit items in one of their trailers. Jim moved that we convey the items, plus the clothing and leathers already in the inventory, to Dave Judy for storage. Chuck seconded. It passed. Since Dave was unable to attend due to a prior commitment, Andrew agreed to take charge of the items and get them to Dave.

New business: Roger discussed the events being held at the Daniel Lady Farm this coming year. They are concentrating on the Gettysburg event. Roger also mentioned other events the Valley Division is also looking at. He said he would supply a complete list.

Jim discussed Beverly Heritage Days. We will wait to hear more about the date before considering further.

Dues are due January 1st. Chuck will be sending out a renewal form to the membership.

Discussion about nominations for officers. Since Tim Cox is moving out of state, a nominee for treasurer is a priority. Also, Ken said he would not run for Vice-president again and Jim will not be running for secretary again, so nominations for all these offices are needed. Secretary and Treasurer can be combined if necessary. All members are encouraged to consider helping out with these nominations. Andrew has agreed to run for President again and Chuck is willing to continue putting out the newsletter. Chuck has agreed to handle the treasurer's duties until the election is held.

Tim Glaser has agreed to take over as webmaster for the Website as Peter Baxter is retiring from that position. Peter has done a great job over the years. Bill agreed to be unit rep for the 25th Va. again and Chuck as 1st WV rep. Also, Phyllis nominated Pam Dodds as unit rep for the Trans-Allegheny Soldiers Aide Society via email prior to the meeting. Roger said he would be willing to be Artillery rep if Dave doesn't want it.

Nominations for the vacant positions will be the main topic of the next meeting.

The next meeting was scheduled for January 21 at 1:00 at the Mountain State Brewing Co. Bridgeport.

Chuck moved to adjourn the meeting and Jim seconded. Motion passed.

Beverly Heritage Days

Beverly Heritage Center and Rich Mountain Battlefield are beginning planning for Beverly Heritage Day 2023. The most likely date will be Saturday, July 22, although July 15 is a possible alternative if there are significant conflicts for July 22. This will again be a timeline event -- we always welcome suggestions for themes, scenarios, and activities. We will make date decision and send a request for WVRA sponsorship in January.

The Irony of War

Charles Howard (1802-1869), member of a distinguished Baltimore family and President of the Baltimore Board of Police, was arrested by U.S. military authorities in July 1861. He was charged as a Confederate sympathizer and jailed at Fort McHenry, Maryland. Howard's son, Francis Key Howard, was arrested on the same charges and jailed with his father at Fort McHenry.

Charles Howard's wife was Elizabeth Phoebe Key, the daughter of Francis Scott Key. Key, of course, was the author of America's national anthem—"The Star-Spangled Banner." Key's legendary verse was written about the 1814 British bombardment of (drum roll please) ... Fort McHenry!

A postal cover (envelope) mailed to Howard's wife during his trials as a prisoner-of-war was offered in a recent Schuyler Rumsey Philatelic auction. The imprint of a coin can be seen in lieu of a postage stamp. One can only imagine the contents of the missing letter enclosed within that cover.

From Bryan Cokeley

With regret, I am resigned to getting out of the hobby. 😞 I just don't seem to have the impetus to get to events with Hampton having left the state. He was in Texas; he now lives in Richmond. (Apparently, he took to heart those calls of "On to Richmond!") He turns 30 in May. He was 10 when we went to our first School of the Soldier. The passage of time. Maybe we all added 5 years this past year. It seems wasteful for me to sit on all of this reenactment gear. I will keep my musket. I can make some young person a great deal on everything else – a whole kit to get started in the hobby. If you know of someone interested, please let me know.

New Civil War History of Harrison County
A Civil War History Of Harrison County, West Virginia 1961-65; Harrison County, Virginia in the Civil War 1856-65. By Pete Taylor

This new book focuses on the years just prior to and during the war between the states. Despite the rich history of the region, no book had ever been written solely focusing on this area for that time period. Therefore, I undertook the task of researching and creating this account. As a resident of Harrison County, I had access to local historians and resources.

The book is available through Amazon for $28.00. The manuscript has been donated to the Harrison County Historical Society and all proceeds go to support that organization.

The newsletter of the West Virginia Reenactors Association
2022 – Mid-December Edition CXLVII

IT SEEMS THE PAST FEW YEARS that when we get to this point of the year, and it's time to nominate officers, we struggle to find volunteers. Somebody seems to step up each year to fill the opening or two. Thank you to those members who have done that in the past.

Failure to fill officer positions would violate the by-laws and threaten our status as a non-profit. Or so that is how I understand it. But the larger question becomes is there enough interest to continue the organization? Or is it time to reorganize? Most active members seem to do their own thing, rather than support the few events that are WVRA sanctioned or sponsored. And many members are just not able to get out in the field any longer. Very few members come to the periodic meetings. I get very little feedback from my group about issues.

The Valley Division has offered to bring us under their umbrella. That issue is being studied and surely will be voted upon should it be decided to consider that proposal.

Some decisions will have to be made. And votes taken. Let your voice be heard.

ANY MEMBER who wants to contribute to the Trans-Allegheny Dispatch is encouraged to do so. I get very few items from members. Anyone who has an opposite point of view to mine, I encourage them to respond. I certainly have expressed some opinions that others might want to rebut. My health, or should I say, the uncertainty over my health has kept me out of the field. So I am relying on those active at events for event reviews.

THANK YOU – Thanks to Peter Baxter for placing on the website. Thanks to Hunter Lesser for the intriguing story.

IT IS TIME TO SUBMIT SCHEDULES for 2023. I hear complaints that event schedules are published too late for some reenactors to plan their work schedules. So if you have events for 2023, please send them to the newsletter editor now.

THE LOCAL CIVIL WAR ROUNDTABLES are off to a great start this year. If you have any questions about the Stonewall Jackson (Clarksburg) or Mason-Dixon (Morgantown) roundtables, please contact me. We have some wonderful presentations. The Stonewall Jackson roundtable meets the second Tuesday of the month (but does skip December and summer months). Mason-Dixon meets the third Tuesday of the month. It skips some months also. If you would like more information, please contact me.
